A LOCAL HERO

Matt Szczur at Wrigley Field, summer 2010

We here at The Sun, proudly report local hero Matt Szczur and the Chicago Cubs have signed a $1.5 million contract, preventing Villanova's wide receiver from pursuing an NFL career (Major League Football scouts remain interested in Matt should he change his mind). The 5-foot-11, 205-pound outfielder originally signed to the Cubs in June 2010, with the agreement of him finishing out his studies at Villanova University this year. Matt, having played three different minor league teams in the Cubs system, started his professional career with a 21-game hitting streak. The right-handed batter and center fielder by trade is considered remarkably fast. He hit .347 in 25 minor league games. According to an MLB source, Matt, who was living in Arizona during Spring Training, will start the 2011 season in Season A Peoria. He isn't expected to return to his Lower Cape May County home until after the season is over in September.

He won by singing an impression of Johnny Mathis - "he has always done that so well," Jeannie said, "and it finally paid off! We were so excited, I knew as soon as he entered the contest that we were going to win!" Photo above of Jeannie Boyle taken by her husband Jerry.
